THE BREVETY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

James Gormley has been appointed an adlitional policeman.

J. W. Shane and Maurice Uliman were granted liquer licenses yesterday. Albert W. Clark was fined $30 in the po-lice court yesterday for kicking a nowsboy named Husibush.

Mr. Amos Webster, late chief clerk of the treasury, has been appointed inspector of the water works extension and put in charge of the reservoir construction.

The house bill in relation to bank shares will be taken up by the senate to-day. The commissioners have recommended that all of the bank shares be taxed at the market value. Mr. David Hagerty has purchased the celebrated painting, "The Nymphs' Bath," which originally cost $2,300. It was painted by Jenuings, a pupil of Hoggs's. The figures are one-eighth life size.

The new dog tag for 1885 has been selected. The new dog tag for 1830 has been selected. It is a German-silver acorn, about an inch in length, and bears the impression of a dog's head, and the inscription, "Dog Tax D. C., 1885." It is very neat.

Robort Daval, a driver of a brick machine company's wagen, was charged with man-slaughter in the police court yesterday, in causing the death of Charles Hessler. The case was sent to the grand jury, and bonds fixed at $1,000.

teenth streets northwest, and is for the ac-commodation of car stables.

A delegation of citizens of Alexandria and Georgetown called upon Chairman Barbour, of the house district committee, yesterday, and asked that a day be fixed to hear the views of the citizens on the free bridge bill. Mr. Barbour will have a day fixed.

G. C. Willard, proprietor of the Ebbitt house, has written a letter to the commissioners, stating that he was unable to attend the conference of hotel owners, but thinks that the facilities against fire on his hotel are sufficient. The letter was referred to Engineer Cronin for examination.

Two boys, named Ward and Burke, were charged with housebreaking in the police court yesterday, and the case fixed for next Wednesday. They are charged with stealing twenty pigeons from William Paesche, or 1924 Tweith street northwest.

The house district committee will report favorably on Mr. Hoblitzell's bill to extend the time for the completion of the Southern Maryland railway. They have also agreed to report the substitute for the bill introduced by Mr. Muldrow, granting relief to Robert Strochan and others.

Postmaster Conger was before the house committee on public buildings and grounds yesterday in relation to the proposed new postoffice building for the district. He urged upon the committee the necessity of having immediate action in the matter, as the ac-commodations now occupied by the postoffice were very poor.

Wil shall open this morning, prompt at 10 o'clock, 450 white and cream embroidered roses at $4.50 and $5.00, former price $5.00 and $10.00. The samples have been on hand for two days, by which over one hundred orders were taken by us. A more desirative bargain has never been offered; also 50 Pongce robes at $5.72 aplece, containing about 20 yards.

LAN-BURGH & BRO., 420, 472, and 424 Seventh street.

Payment of Female Nurses.

The bill introduced in the squate by Mr Hawley, to provide for the payment of female nurses who served during the late civil war, provides that all such nurses shall be paid such sums of money as will bring up the amount of compensation paid to them to S5 per month for the time which they were employed as nurses.

Now on free exhibition at Hagerty's, 1202 Pennsylvania avenue, a superb copy of Bon-guerau's "Nymphs Bathing."
